

Inspiring our future workforce.

Time, knowledge and experience from today's employers can help give young people the right skills for effective employment tomorrow.

Business Development Manager

3 days a week*

The EBP are seeking an individual with integrity, initiative and a creative approach to generate and build new business partnerships within this exciting new role. The aim is to increase employer engagement in the skills development of young people. Supporting schools to help raise achievement of 14-19 year olds as well as supporting business objectives around skills development and corporate social responsibility.

Full job description, person specification and application form are available on www.ebpwb.co.uk or telephone 01635 277481, email michellep@ebpwb.co.uk

Closing date: Monday, 6th of July 2009

*3 days pw, 2 year contract, see website for more details

All candidates will be subject to Criminal Records Bureau checks along with other relevant employment checks.

A not for profit organisation and registered charity,
No. 1030564